Make to thyself a name
Not with the breath of slug
Which like the hollowed reed
Doth hide itself away
Not with the fame that vaunts
The tyrent on his throne
And hurls its stigma on the soul
That God vouchsafes to own

Make to thyself a name
Not such as wealth can weave
Whose warp is but a thread of gold
That dazzels to deceive
Not with the tints of love
From out its letters fine
That scrall within thy hand shall fade
Like him that placed it there

Make to thy self a name
Not in the sculptured aisle
The marble oft betrays its trusts
Like Egypts lofty pile
But ask of him who yields
Of death the victor strife
To write it on the Blood-bought page
Of everlasting life
